PER CURIAM.

Ethel Thomas appeals the district court's* judgment entered on an adverse jury verdict in Thomas's employment-discrimination action, but she did not request or furnish a trial transcript. See Fed. R. App. P. 10(b)(1)-(2) (appellant's duty to order transcript). Thomas complains about her trial attorney, complains about issues that are unreviewable without a transcript, and appears to ask for an independent assessment of witness credibility. See Glick v. Henderson, 855 F.2d 536, 541 (8th Cir. 1988) (no statutory or constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel in civil case); Schmid v. United Bhd. of Carpenters & Joiners, 827 F.2d 384, 386 (8th Cir. 1987) (per curiam) (appellant's failure to provide complete transcript makes it impossible to review evidence presented at trial), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 1071 (1988); Weber v. Block, 784 F.2d 313, 316-17 (8th Cir. 1986) (credibility determinations are uniquely within province of trier of fact, and reviewing court may not substitute its own credibility determination).

Finding no basis for reversal, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
